

Kultivo Enterprise

Looking for ways to optimise internal talent management? Kultivo offers unique and flexible opportunities for your team. Give them the freedom to decide what courses they want to follow and ensure a more relevant and exciting learning experience.

What is Kultivo?

Kultivo is a platform where professionals find one-session courses on up-to-date topics right in Brussels. Trainings are conducted in a workshop manner, allowing interactivity and personal approach.

For employees:

- Short relevant courses
- Small groups
- Quality networking opportunities

For employers:

- Easy management
- No fuss administration
- Flexible training opportunities

One credit = 25€ = less frustration for all

Here at Kultivo we use credits as our universal currency. By using credits we allow easier transactions and cleaner interface as well as straightforward calculations and distribution for your team.

Innovative learning approach

We provide an easy and fuss-free talent development tool. All you have to do is buy a number of credits and let your employee decide what to learn

Relevant and efficient courses

All courses are suited to the needs of the market and address current trends. Courses take place in small groups, ensuring interaction, personal approach and networking opportunities

Centralised administration

As the only intermediary between you and the training provider, we manage and coordinate all the paperwork for your maximum comfort

Who are our experts? At Kultivo we believe that only people with a hands-on field experience can suggest a truly relevant and adapted to world realities course. Our experts are renowned specialists and experienced professionals with unique knowledge to share (entrepreneurs, CEOs, managers, etc.)
